

The Holy Eucharist Third Sunday after the Epiphany

January 23, 2022
10:00 a.m.

Saint Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church
We are Called to Know, Live and Share the Love of Christ

Welcome to Sunday Worship at Saint Michael's

We're glad you're here. Wherever you are in your spiritual journey, you are invited to participate during worship as much as you are comfortable. We hope this bulletin will help.

Books for Worship

Today's service begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer also referred to as the BCP. This is our primary book for worship in the Episcopal Church. In this bulletin you will see page numbers that reference where to find things in the BCP that the priest is saying and also the responses from the congregation. Many responses are short enough that after a few weeks of worshipping in an Episcopal Church they become second nature. In your pew is a Bible. It contains the scripture readings that form the first half of our service. There's also a Hymnal in your pew. The Hymnal is called The Hymnal 1982

Music in Worship

Episcopalians like to sing and that's very true here at Saint Michael's. Much of our music is in the pew Hymnal; However, supplementary music will be found here in this bulletin. Please refer to the page numbers of the bulletin for those supplemental hymns.

Receiving Communion

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. It is customary to receive the Bread in your hands. At this time we are not receiving the blood of Christ due to Covid. If you do not wish to receive Communion, you are invited to come forward for a blessing. Should you desire to receive gluten free Host, please indicate this to the server at the altar rail. To receive the Body of Christ the ushers will direct worshippers when to come toward.

Live Streaming

To pray at home along with us we have Online Eucharist. In-Person worship is limited to 50% capacity at this time but, so far, no reservations are necessary. Pandemic precautions are still in place, including the wearing of masks and maintaining distance for in-person gatherings. Please log in on Facebook, YouTube or our website SaintMichaelSB.org

The readings for worship may also be found at LectionaryPage.net,

Old Testament

Nehemiah 8: 1-3, 5-6, 8-10

Sandy Stackhouse

Psalm 19 Caeli enarrant

Doug Kroll

- 1 The heavens declare the glory of God, *
and the firmament shows his handiwork.
- 2 One day tells its tale to another, *
and one night imparts knowledge to another.
- 3 Although they have no words or language, *
and their voices are not heard,
- 4 Their sound has gone out into all lands, *
and their message to the ends of the world.
- 5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun; *
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
- 6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens
and runs about to the end of it again; *
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.
- 7 The law of the LORD is perfect
and revives the soul; *
the testimony of the LORD is sure
and gives wisdom to the innocent.
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are just

and rejoice the heart; *
the commandment of the LORD is clear
and gives light to the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean
and endures for ever; *
the judgments of the LORD are true
and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold,
more than much fine gold, *
sweeter far than honey,
than honey in the comb.

11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *
and in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how often he offends? *
cleanse me from my secret faults.

13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get dominion over me; *
then shall I be whole and sound,
and innocent of a great offense.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, *
O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.
